FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oswald Named Vice President, Architecture

Aurora, CO – Oct. 26, 2010 – James Oswald, RA, NCARB, LEED AP® has been named vice president, architecture for Merrick & Company (www.merrick.com). In this role, Oswald will be responsible for overseeing licensing and regulatory issues concerning Merrick’s practice of architecture in the United States and prospective countries of opportunity abroad. Oswald will develop strategies for increasing Merrick’s architectural competitiveness and reputation for design excellence in all markets served by the firm.

Oswald has over 24 years of experience in the architecture profession with a focus on military, government, and commercial projects. Over the past ten years, he’s been involved in a significant number of military projects for Cannon Air Force Base, Holloman Air Force Base, Fort Sill, Keesler Air Force Base, Minnesota National Guard/Camp Ripley, and Fort Leonard Wood. In 2004, he was appointed by New Mexico governor, The Honorable Bill Richardson, to serve on the New Mexico Board of Examiners for Architects (NMBEA). In 2008 he was elected Chairman of the NMBEA and in 2009 he was appointed chairman of the Broadly Experienced Architect and Chairman of the Broadly Experienced Foreign Architect Committees for the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards. He holds a BA in architecture from the Boston Architectural Center and is registered in New Mexico, Colorado, and Minnesota as well as being National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB) certified.

Merrick & Company is a $100 million engineering, architecture, design-build, surveying, and geospatial solutions firm, serving domestic and international clients in the energy, security, life sciences, and infrastructure markets. The firm is committed to sustainable design and construction practices through its 50+ LEED-accredited professionals and is continually expanding its in-house resources to serve tomorrow’s needs. Headquartered in Aurora, Colorado, the employee-owned company maintains eight offices in the U.S. as well as offices in Canada and Mexico.
